worth, aged 19, shot and killed his father. Mansfield T. Walworth, in the Sturtevant house this morning. Deceased was an author, and boarded in a house away from his family. Domestic trouble is assigned as the cause of the tragedy. Young Walworth (who lives at Saratoga) directly after the shooting went to the 29th precinct police station, and surrendered. Walworth arrived in this city on Monday, to attend a communication of the Grand Lodge of the Masonic Fraternity, of the state of New York, which opens to-day. Young Walworth tells the following story concerning the shooting. and the causes which led thereto:

THE MURDERER'S STATEMENT. I reside with my mother, in Saratoga. my father having parted from her several years ago: my father is an author, and I have been studying law; I think father is about 40 years old, but do not know where he was born; my father has not lived with mother since he left here, three years ago, but he has repeatedly sent us threatening and insulting letters, it is only a short time since he threatened to shoot mother and myself;

I SHOT BIM Because of this; not long ago I met him in Saratogs, and told him if he did not keep away from us, or if he insulted my mother anymore I would shoot him : I told him there were bounds which I would not allow any man to go beyond with impunity, especially when my own mother was being and left a note for him to call on me, which he did this morning. When he came in the room I drew a revolver, and told him to promise he would not threaten or insult us any more, which he promised; shortly after we began talking on family case before. Dr. March did not find any pistol in the pockets of deceased, but found a note left

When Mr. Walworth reached his house he read the note which his son had left, and this morning left the house about six o'clock, to go and see him. At 6:15 Walworth entered the Sturtevant bouse, and to his room, with the card of Mr. Walworth, Sr., to ascertain if the son would

THE PRISONER

Will remain at the station-house till after the inquest, and should a verdict be rendered against him, will be sent to the Tombs. He is but 19 years of age, and treats the affair very lightly.
